*In the spring of their third year, students normally make the decision whether to enter the job market upon graduation or apply to the Master of Accountancy program. ACC 414 and 431 are both prerequisites to the MAcc program; therefore, students planning to enter the MAcc program should take ACC 414 or ACC 431 (whichever was not taken to satisfy the major requirement) instead of IM 442 in the IM collateral, for Log 421 in the LOG collateral, for Fin 455 in the FIN collateral, and for one of the three required courses in the IB collateral.

Students pursuing the international business collateral will be required to complete a study abroad experience approved by the College of Business Administration Undergraduate Programs Office and represented by enrollment in International Business 489.

NOTE: Only in exceptional cases will an application for transfer students be considered after 75 hours of coursework have been attempted.
